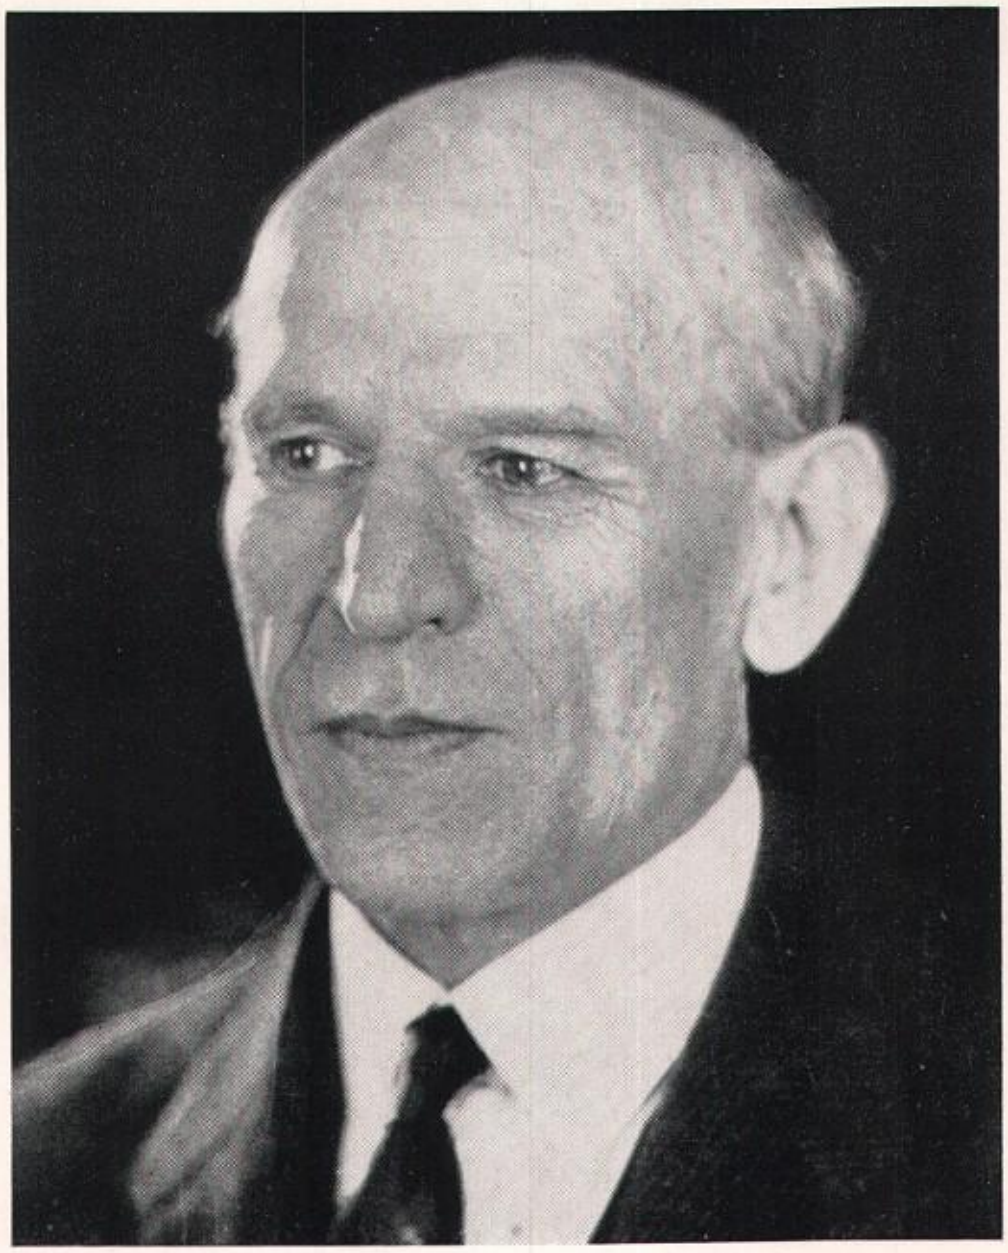
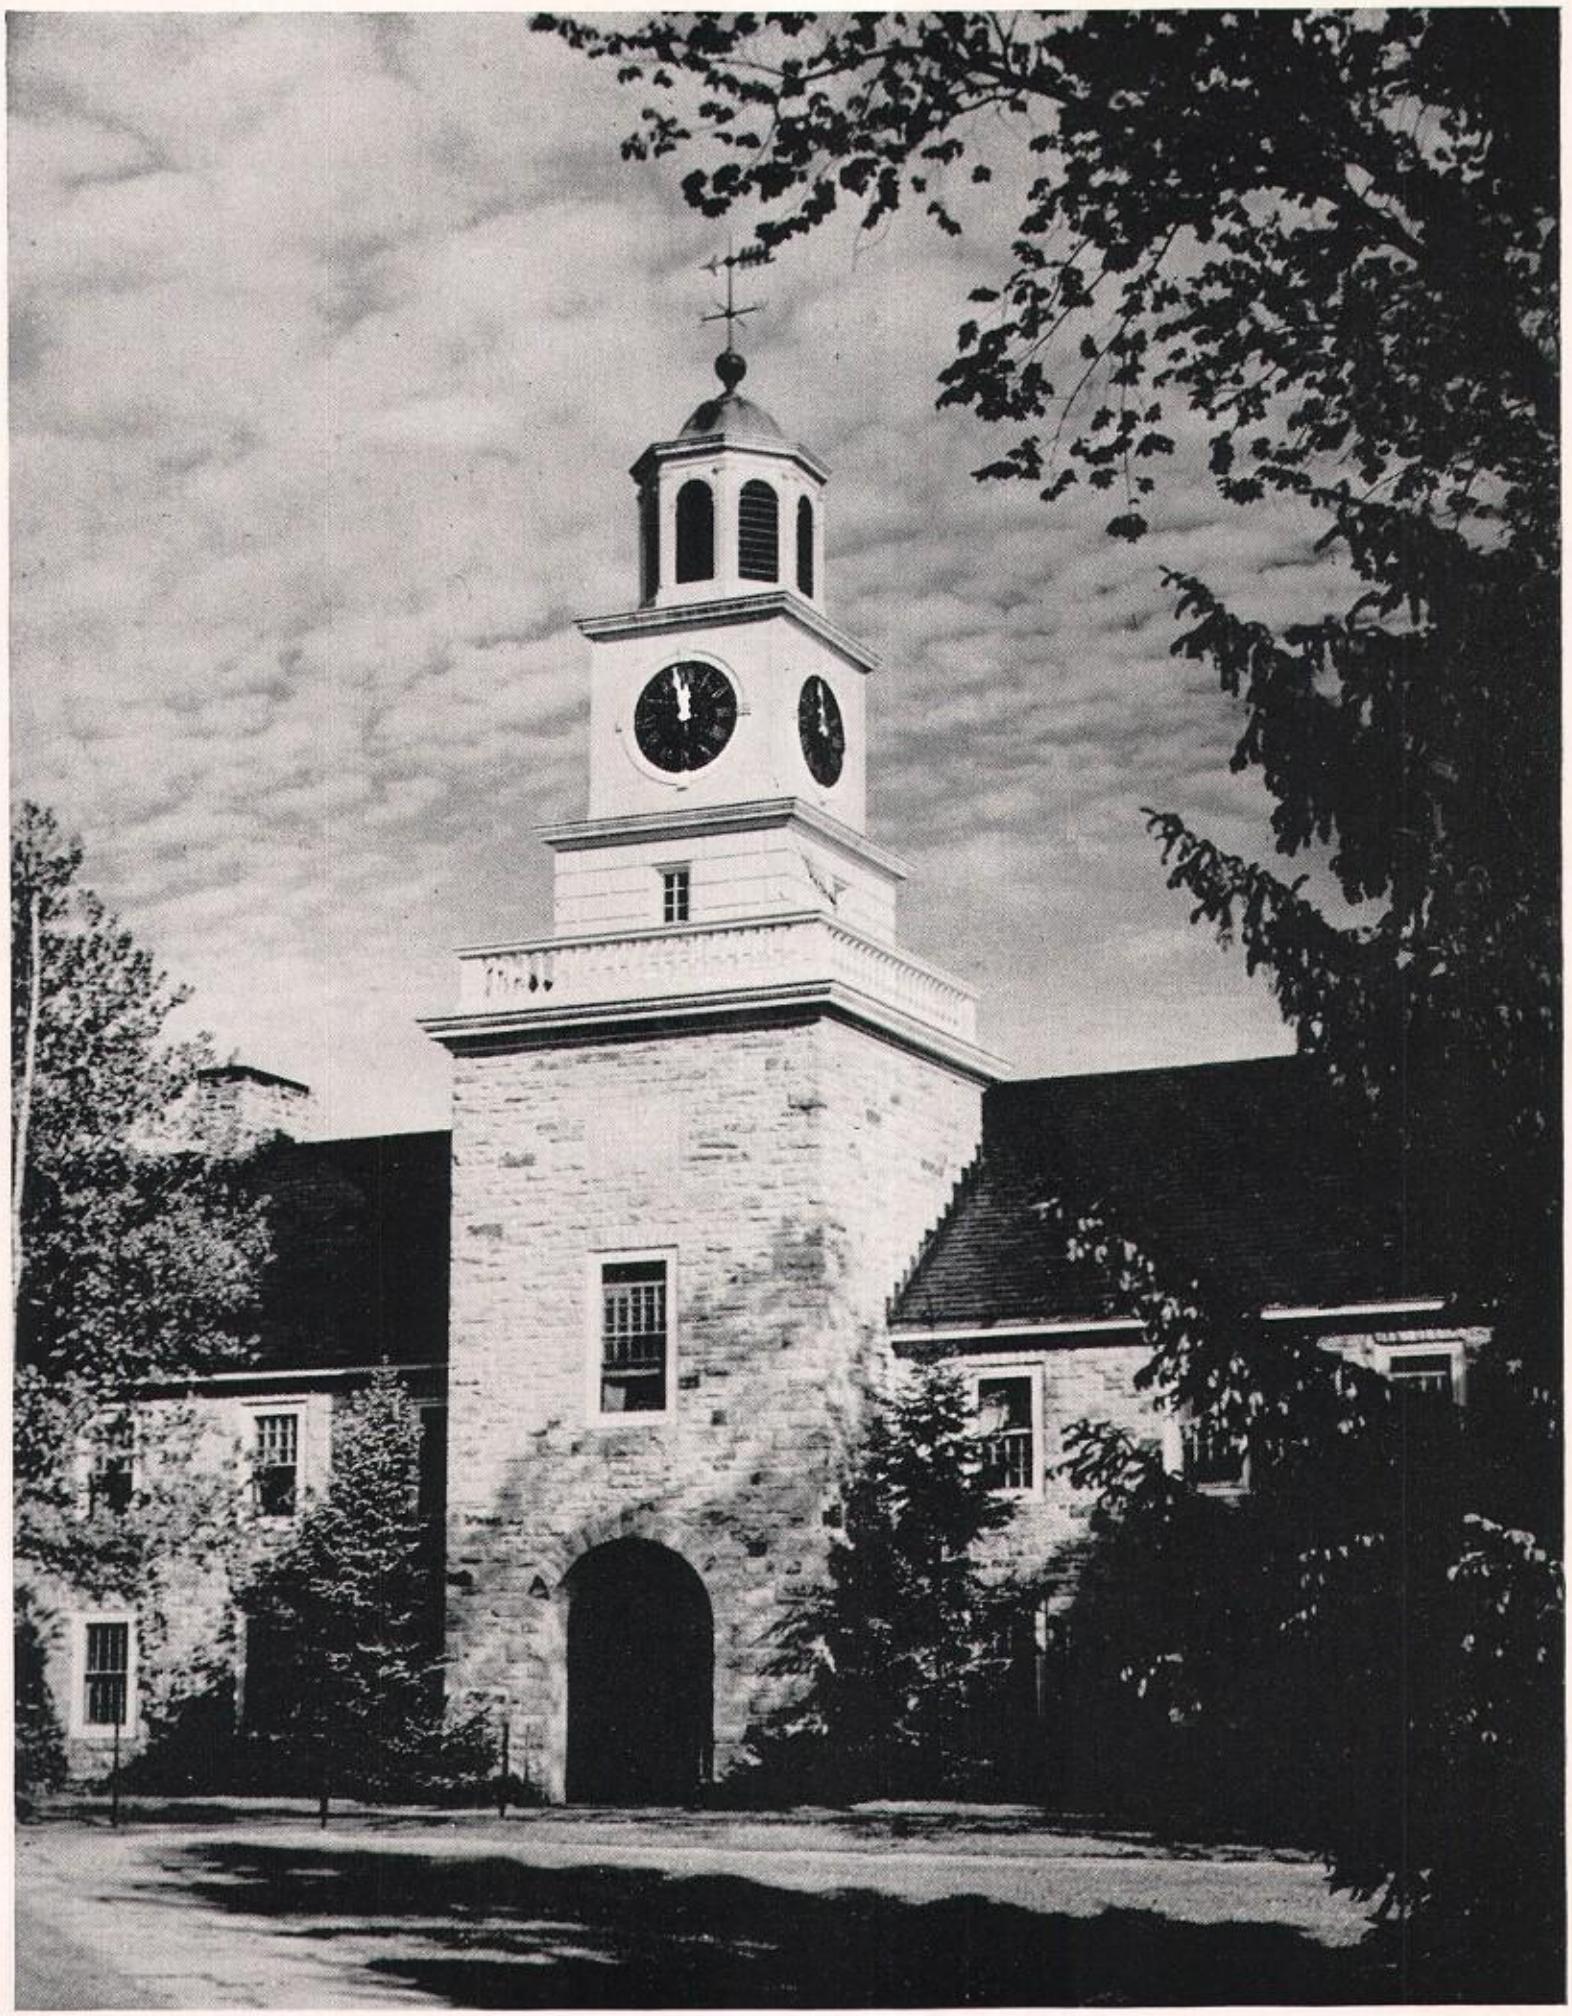
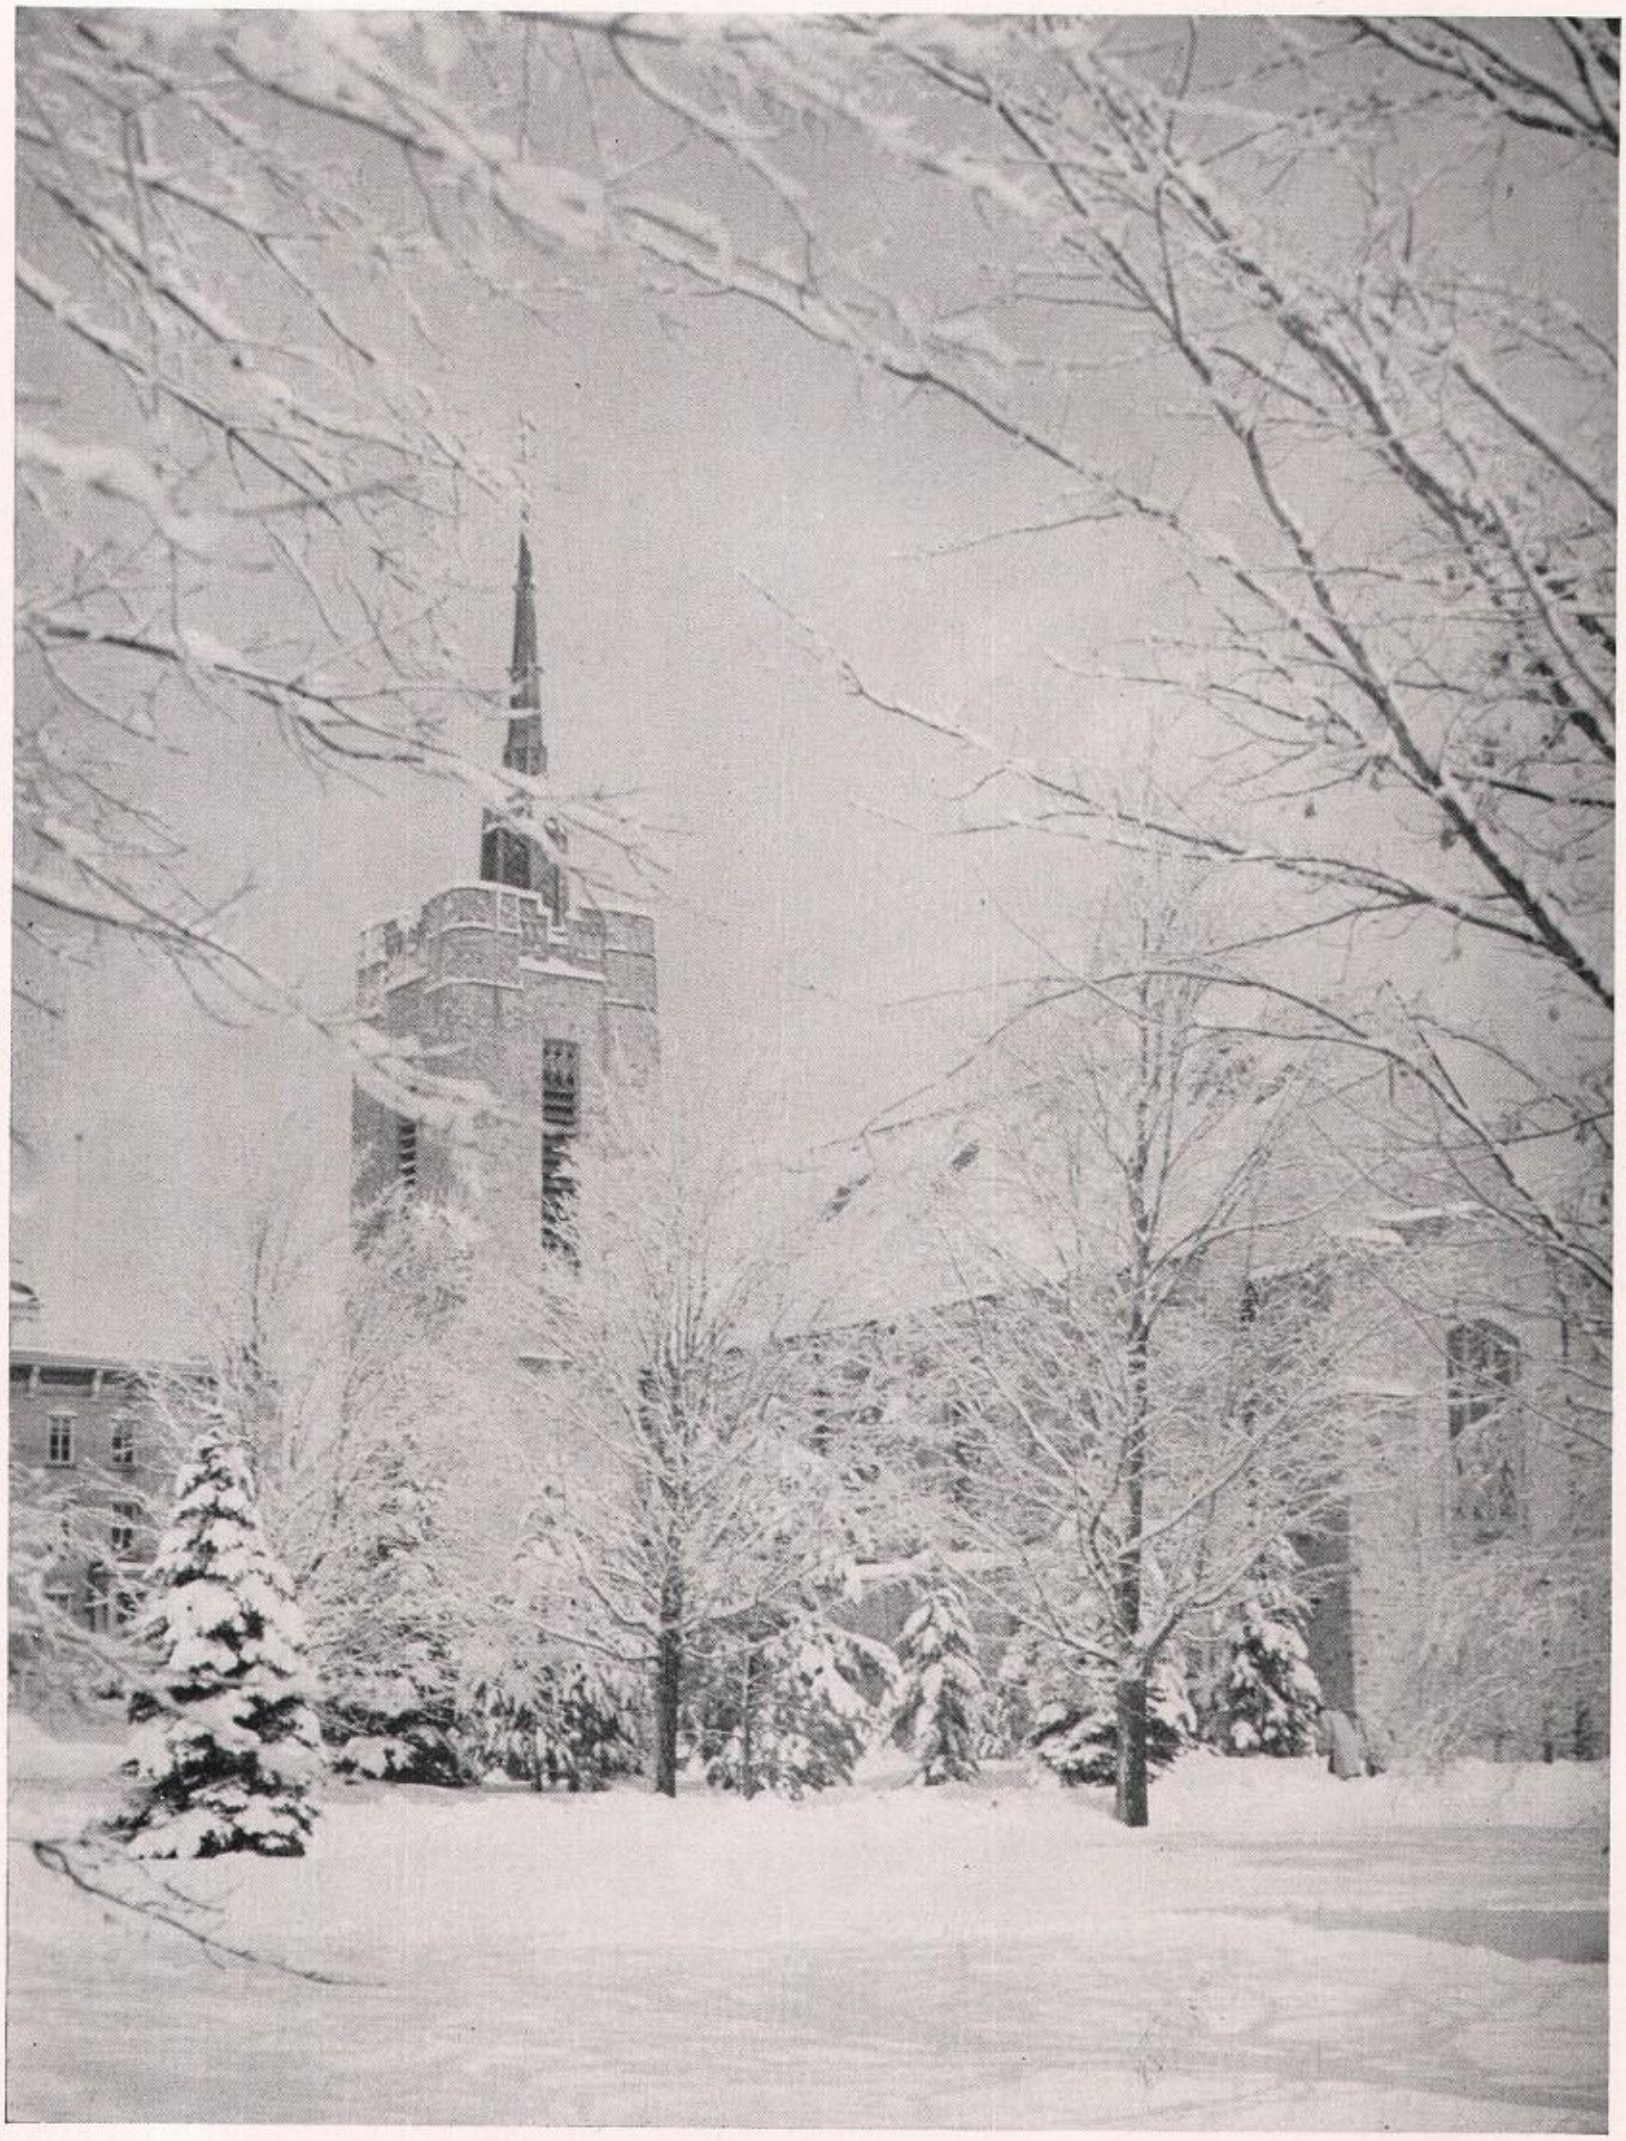
DEDICATION



JOHN MURRAY ATWOOD

For over a decade instructor and professor on the St. Lawrence campus, and for thirty-five years Dean of The Theological School, an office formerly held by his distinguished father. He spent his boyhood about the campus, was an outstanding "Larry" student and athlete in his youth, and has during most of the succeeding years given our University of his unbounded physical energy, his unusually broad and thorough scholarship, his unstinted devotion as a teacher and counselor of youth, his eagerly sought guidance in administrative affairs, and, most appreciated of all, his greatness of spirit as a man. Our "Beloved Dean," the most Laurentian of Laurentians who, in years of service and quality of mind, represents as does no one else the cherished liberal spirit and traditions of St. Lawrence.





I am not a teacher: only another traveler of whom you asked the way. I pointed ahead—ahead of myself as well as of you.

Examination Book

This issue of the Gridiron bears the class numerals 1949. Fortunately, this post-war class has had a reasonable share of "normal" college life. It is your college life experience that the Gridiron is intended to preserve. Your own class book is a segment of your college years, a passport to cherished memories. May this volume on your shelves remind you, as well, that St. Lawrence has a future which as Alumni you also share.

Among the definite accomplishments of the Thelomathesian Society this year was the organization of the Freshman Class Council, a representative body to help give the freshmen a more important place in campus life. Another accomplishment was the revision and successful execution of the orientation program by the orientation leaders.

In the publicity line, a bi-weekly newspaper, Thelomanews, was started and edited by Don Beaman for the purpose of keeping the students posted on activities of this society. A campus-wide publicity bureau was also set up in order to arouse more student interest and participation.

Another accomplishment of the student government was the excellent series of freshman chapel programs, which was under the direction of Stella Doukas. Other activities included the investigation of benefits derived from membership in the National Student Association, the revision of the entire constitution, the addition of an amendment stating that all students are automatically members of the Student Union, establishment of a freshman study hall, and final action on the war memorial.

This is the executive body of the student government and consists of the officers of the Thelomathesian Society and representatives of the major social and literary organizations. As a student representative group, the Council discusses campus problems and prepares them for the agenda of the Thelomathesian meetings. As a democratic organization, its meetings are open for attendance and debate to any student.

Congratulations should be extended to Don O'Brien, Jean Graves, and the rest of the Council for their successful program of welcoming freshmen and keeping them busy and happy during the first part of their stay at college. Other items on this year's agenda included a coffee at the President's house, a reception, and a picnic at Sandbanks.

MARJORIE HOLTERMANN

This year the Women's Student Government Association has initiated activities in the interest of the women students of St. Lawrence as well as serving as their governing body. A booklet entitled "Alice in Winter Wonderland" was published to help orient freshman girls to St. Lawrence. In the fall W. S. G. A. presented a fashion show in which the women students participated, and on Thanksgiving Day sponsored a non-denominational service in the chapel. Co-operating with the New York State Agricultural and Technical Institute, W. S. G. A. arranged for a course in Home Economics which began in February and proved to be very popular among St. Lawrence girls. A Vocational Guidance Workshop was established to bring to the campus speakers representing various fields of occupation for women.

W. S. G. A., of which every woman student is a member, functions independently of Thelomathesian and is guided by an Executive Council. Composed of an upperclass representative from each house on campus, this year the Council consisted of Nancy Schilling, Virginia Stanton, Lorraine Pilke, Barbara Sniffen, Coralyn Dahlstrom, Irene Kocsis, and Katherine Hardcastle.

In addition to being one of the most influential organizations at St. Lawrence, W. S. G. A. extends the scope of its activities beyond the campus, since it is a member of the Intercollegiate Association of Women Students.

Sitting: Gluck, Wiltsie, Thomas, Castle, Boyd, Gutmann, Burke. Standing: Russek, Corwin, O'Brien, Rosenberg, Spatz, Carlson, Hefti, Wainwright, MacLeod, Russell, Robertson, Tuthill, Worstell, Graves.

Organized and advised by Don O'Brien, Bill Rescorl, Jean Gutmann, and Jean Graves, the Council has proved to be a successful addition to campus executive bodies. This group, with representatives from both Dean-Eaton and the Men's Residence, has arranged for freshman tutorage by upperclass students and has handled other problems such as the synchronization of all of the college clocks.

The primary function of this cooperative society is to provide the best possible facilities at the lowest cost to each member. The over-all purpose is, as stated in the constitution, that the society shall be "an agency for the building of personality, ethical character, and good citizenship." With an integration of these two aims it is hoped that the group will be valuable to the University.

STUDENT UNION

One of the newest organizations on campus is the Student Union. By the vote of the student body last spring it developed from a temporary committee under the Thelomathesian Society to one of the largest and most vital organizations on our campus. Since then, Fred Russell, who is the chairman of the Student Union Board, and the other board members, Eleanor Nicklus, Don Sohn, Joan Hanigan, Bert Crouchley, Vivienne Grignard, Gil Dwyer, Warren Zittell, Karen Dollard, and Connie Kisciras, have gone a long way toward achieving the aims of the organization.

To help supplement the recreational facilities on campus and in the community, the board has worked out a recreational schedule in Laurentian Hall. Hours are provided each day for juke-box dancing, card playing, and games such as ping-pong, badminton, chess, and checkers. Student Union functions include movies twice a week, a weekly dance, concerts, and chess, bridge, and badminton tournaments. Student employment is handled by the Student Union program. The Modern Dance Club and the newly formed Fencing Club and Art Club are also part of the program.

Although the primary function of the Student Union is to supply recreation, the board hopes that in addition it will serve other purposes. It not only provides an opportunity for the students to get together, but it also helps to achieve greater coordination between the students and faculty, and serves as a means of promoting student loyalty to the school. The board believes, though the Student Union is still in an early stage of development, that in the future it will become an important part of life at St. Lawrence, forming a major link in the Student Union organization in the country.

Mummers, the campus dramatic society, under the capable guidance of Mrs. Marguerite Holmes, has successfully produced three Broadway hits and a series of one-act plays. The Mummers' season began with the production of Thurber's "The Male Animal." A unique central-staging plan was employed in this production. After presenting the play on campus, the cast and crew took the play to the Saranac Inn and presented it at the Conference of the Superintendents of New York State Schools.

The second major production of the season was the Broadway success "Idiot's Delight" by Robert Sherwood. Ingenious sound and lighting devices were utilized in this play to create the realistic effects of an air raid. In order to provide more opportunities for student participation in dramatic productions and to enable Mummers to have a more varied program, several one-act plays were presented. Among them were Saroyan's "Subway Circus" and "Lot's Wife" by Percival Wilde. The latter was student-directed by Hartley Day.

Mummers offers to interested students the opportunity to act, direct, and produce, and to gain experience in lighting, make-up, and other phases of amateur theater. During Summer School an experimental group presents various well-known plays for the campus and near-by towns. In the summer class, the students learn in detail many theatrical techniques. St. Lawrence is indeed proud of its dramatic society, for Mummers always presents outstanding productions with a professional touch. The enthusiastic audiences attending the plays are indicative of Mummers' success.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The Music Department, headed by Mr. Kenneth Munson, has had an unusually active year. The bands, the Orchestra, the Choir, and the Laurentian Singers have all taken part in programs during the year, while many students took private voice and piano lessons from Miss Mertice St. Clair. On both sunny and wet football Saturdays the Marching Band added its spirit and new uniforms to the scene. Under the capable direction of J. Richard Gilbert, the group also made an out-of-town appearance at the Gettysburg game in Kingston.

The Concert Band, claiming forty-five members, and the Orchestra, with thirty-three, are also headed by Mr. Gilbert. Each of these organizations participated in concerts on campus and each broadcast over WSLB and KLSU. The Concert Band performed at Franklin Academy in Malone and for student assemblies at Alexandria Bay, Clayton, and Ogdensburg schools, as well as an out-of-doors concert on Moving-Up Day Weekend. In the spring a recital was given by the private piano and voice students.

Director Wesley E. Smith held try-outs in the fall and selected 248 students for the University Choir and thirty-two for the Laurentian Singers. Both choral groups participated in the traditional Christmas Candlelight Service and later presented a Spring Concert. The Laurentian Singers sang at the President's Dinner and, making a downstate trip, also sang over WWNY in Watertown and WGY in Schenectady.

RADIO DEPARTMENT

The Radio Workshop maintains its studios in Gunnison Memorial Chapel and from these studios the students broadcast over stations WSLB and KSLU.

The studios have had a complete face-lifting during the past few years so that today they are a well-equipped and highly efficient broadcasting unit.

It is the job of the Radio Workshop staff to choose what programs are to be broadcast. This is done under the skilled guidance of Miss Helen Jean Pepper, the department's director. The programs produced by the more advanced students are broadcast over WSLB, while the campus broadcasting unit, KSLU, is used by the beginning students an hour a day as a radio proving ground.

The students in the department and the staff are constantly trying to provide new and more interesting programs for the radio listeners. One of the strong points of college radio lies in its use as a laboratory for developing new programs which will be of service to the public, programs which are being neglected by commercial radio. This comes as a by-product of the attempt to instill in the college broadcasters the basic philosophy of radio, action in the public interest, and good programming.

The other big attraction in the basement of the chapel is the student-operated campus broadcasting station, KSLU, one of the fastest growing extra-curricular activities on the campus today. Started as an outlet for the energies of a technically-minded student five years ago, KSLU has grown larger than its founders ever dreamed it would.

KSLU is on the air almost fifty hours each week. Its staff of fifteen members directs the activities of over one hundred participants. Programs include campus news, world news, special events on campus, student talent, request programs, and disc-jockey shows. To this list must be added sports, for no matter where a St. Lawrence team plays, at home or away, a KSLU microphone is likely to be found on the scene.

KSLU broadcasts from its studios in the chapel. This year a new and more efficient transmitter has been added along with other technical equipment. KSLU maintains a record library of 4,000 popular records, which is growing at the rate of 1,000 records a year. Few, if any, college radio stations can boast of a larger or better rounded record library.

It is only through the tireless efforts of all connected with the station, from the manager on down, that KSLU can continue to grow at such a phenomenal rate. KSLU is a member of the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System and the Empire Network. Mutual Network programs are also used by the station. This past year has seen KSLU extend its broadcasting hours, increase its technical facilities, and strengthen its program schedule. KSLU and the Radio Workshop have this year fulfilled the promise of increased service to the students and to St. Lawrence University.

This year the Outing Club at St. Lawrence, under the direction of a newly formed Board of Governors and its adviser, Robert Wright, maintained a full calendar of events during the school year. Freshmen quickly discovered what the Outing Club is like during Orientation Week, when they all enjoyed the annual picnic sponsored by the club. Fall activities commenced with the Sandbank Holiday, an afternoon of games and races which was fun for all, even for those who got wet. The second event sponsored by the Outing Club was the Hayseed Hop, which was such a success that this square dance will probably become an annual affair.

Mt. Marcy is a favorite goal for the outdoor-minded. During the year the Outing Club sponsored several week-end trips there, hiking or skiing, depending on the weather. Winter Carnival, the climax of our winter season, is sponsored by the club, whose members help out both with the ski meet and with the other features of the biggest week-end of the college year. The project closest to the hearts of the club members, however, is the Colton Snow Bowl. This year the Outing Club tried to make it possible for all students interested in skiing to reach the Snow Bowl, by running busses on week-days as well as on week-ends. For the convenience of the skiers, Outing Club members repaired buildings at Colton to serve as places to eat, and to spend the night. The Outing Club was also largely responsible for the excellent condition of the slopes at Colton.

In order to keep the student body in touch with the Outing Club program, Herm Schwenk took to the air-waves every Monday night with a program of music, interviews, ad-libbing, and Outing Club news. Another innovation this year was the Ski Shop, run by the club to serve the club members. Managed by Jim Lally, it supplied the members of the Outing Club with all kinds of skiing equipment at comparatively low rates. The Outing Club this year certainly lived up to its reputation as the largest and most active extra-curricular body on campus.

THE WORKERS

Little credit is given those students who spend much of their free time performing the innumerable and often boring tasks which arise in the process of producing our campus publications. They are the people who put into effect the ideas and plans of the publications' staffs. During the course of a school year St. Lawrence prints four publications: The Hill News, a weekly newspaper; the Laurentian, a monthly literary magazine; the Scarlet Saint, the humor magazine appearing four times a year; and this, your Gridiron. The job of publication falls almost wholly on the shoulders of the students. A rough calculation of our school's literary efforts involves some four to six thousand pounds of paper which results in an approximate total of 65,000 individual copies of reading matter for a campus circulation of 1700 students and faculty readers not to mention alumni, parents, and advertisers. These statistics demonstrate in a small way the impressive amount of work involved in planning and publishing and delivering our publications.

The endless array of details which continually arises in this work of publishing constitutes such jobs as approaching, persuading, and contracting for advertising; billing, accounting for, and filing advertisers' and subscribers' payments; operating the addressograph; collecting current advertising copy; arranging for group pictures; construction of "dummy" copies in which work is organized and planned; arranging contracts with publishers which are satisfactory to school administration, editors, and publishers alike; meeting the dead-line; and hundreds of other such duties both incidental and major.

The performance of such duties offers no material remuneration to any of these workers, but the satisfaction of a job well done. The prospect of further experience and recognition in their respective lines of vocation or avocation serve as justifiable and welcome compensation for services rendered. A further and probably more profound reason for the unselfish and loyal performance of duties in these extra-curricular activities is greater opportunity to make the lasting college friendships which genuine hard work and cooperation foster.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

Panhellenic Council, consisting of two members from each sorority on campus, has as its two main functions the establishment of rules concerning the regulation of rushing and the orientation of freshmen to the sorority system at St. Lawrence.

In addition to carrying out the rushing program, each year "Panhel" gives a tea for all incoming freshmen girls in the metropolitan area. Held early in September in New York City, it gives the freshmen a chance to become acquainted with some of the upperclassmen. All the senior girls in the Canton High School are invited to a tea at Dean-Eaton Hall, sponsored in the spring by the Council.

This year "Panhel" formulated plans for a Junior Panhellenic Council to be composed of freshmen representatives from the five sororities. Their job would be that of organizing pledge parties for the sororities. "Panhel" will be assisted by the Junior Panhellenic Council in making a complete revision of the rushing system.

Officers for this year were: President, Helen Majewski; Vice-President, Shirley Goggins; Secretary, Jean Makray; Treasurer, Mary Jane Stetser. The representatives were June Epple, Adrienne Gessner, Carol Wind, Janet Patten, Ann Robinson, and Joyce Kruger.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

The bright faces in the picture belong to the residents of the "Lodge" on East Main Street. If you look closely, you may recognize two members of the women's ski team, the W. A. A. president, several Mummers, Beta Ball queen and a member of her court, a Laurentian associate editor and several members of the Editorial Advisory Board, the vice-president of the sophomore class, Fraternity Editor of the Gridiron, and various other "little wheels." Here and there you may recognize an amateur skier last seen head first in a snowbank. Hockey can hardly be said to have been neglected, as four of the gals made the Middlebury and Rochester varsity teams. The girls also won a major victory in the scholastic field by capturing top scholastic honors after playing second fiddle to the A. D. Pi's for the past two semesters. Thanksgiving was celebrated with a gala hayride which ended in the Lodge kitchen with a waffle party. Another well-remembered party was the Freshman open house when the new gents on campus were given a Kappa welcome. It would be hard to cover all the private little joys of each member, but as a group they have a great deal of fun singing at meals, "cutting up" in the dorm, tossing around a football in the front yard, starting a picture gallery on the bulletin board of the worst pictures taken for the "Gridiron," and displaying an endless gift for thinking up various mischievous antics. So with a few tears and a great deal of laughter, the Kappas have survived another year of college experiences to be recorded for posterity in this issue of the "Gridiron."

DELTA DELTA DELTA

Many crescent moons have waxed over the big white house on Judson Street since Beta Chapter was established in 1891. Styles and college life have changed, too, but the Tri-Delts continue to hold the proud traditions of one of the nation's oldest and largest fraternal organizations. The members are especially proud of their seniors' record of achievement. House President Mary Maxfield and Thelomathesian Vice-President Barbara Sniffen both are wearing the white jackets denoting Kalon membership. "Sniffie," who traded a degree for a wedding ring in January, was further honored by being included among St. Lawrence's delegates to Who's Who. House Manager Punkie Fiumera had the difficult task of balancing budgets all year and running a taxi service to campus for the Deltas. Helen Schneeloch had two secretaryships to keep her busy, recording secretary for the house and secretary for Mummers. Ann Leadley and Shirley Goggins helped get the "Scarlet Saint" to the public and their roommate Marty Fiddler held membership in two honorary fraternities, Beta Beta Beta and Alpha Kappa Delta. Vonnie Johnson, one of the Tri-Delt soloists, spent many hours at Laurentian Singers' rehearsals and in Radio Workshop. Rushing chairman Sally Hammes combined the extra planning of rush parties with many weekend trips to Princeton, and Maria Trebbi spent the year playing second fiddle to a guitar; Connie Larios, with her Nellie Lucher renditions, was house Vice-President. The Deltas' most enthusiastic equestrienne, Shirley Williams, left the house in January to marry a horseman! Perhaps the most unwilling to say farewell to the seniors is Mrs. "Mac" who, for four years, has made the house at 19 Judson Street a gracious home for them.

PI BETA PHI

The house at 34 Park Street has long been known and remembered not only as the home of the New York Gamma Chapter of Pi Beta Phi, but as home, radiating warmth and hospitality to all who cross its doorstep. The seniors we will be losing are as well-known to you as they are to us. Our past president, Carolyn Reamon; our Panhel representative and stately beauty of the house, Jeano Makray; the incomparable Pat Hagan, Managing Editor of the "Laurentian," Publicity Director for Mummers, and conversationalist supreme; athlete and number one chauffeur Millie Elliot; Honey MacDougall, on the Dean's List; gracious Lyn Stewart; vivacious Jeanie Rugen, active in "Hill News," Radio Workshop, and Mummers; talented Anne Thornton, song leader, Mummer, and excellent comedienne; Ann Kastensmith, Social Exchange Chairman; Joane Weller, Corresponding Secretary, and her music-loving roommate, Marty Thomson, Spanish student superb and also on the Dean's List; Joan Dappert, Campus Council representative and Mummer; and last, but certainly not least, Anne Dawson and Ginny, all-around athletes and outstanding skiers who abound with personality and good humor. A very special achievement by Anne Thornton was the winning this summer of third place among all entries in a song contest at the National Convention of the 98 Pi Phi chapters. To Mrs. Peckham, our housemother, we owe our sincere gratitude, not only for her understanding and cooperation, but for her inspiration and help in completing plans for our new chapter house. Our one regret is that our seniors will no longer be able to help us carry out this project.

KAPPA DELTA

As we round the corner of Park and University, we stop by a friendly red brick building, the Kappa Delta House. Over the door hangs the diamond shield bearing a dagger. This constitutes the home quarters for all of the KD's on campus, the house which has been going strong since 1921, when the Sigma Eta Chapter of Kappa Delta was founded. Let's stop and take a peek at the seniors who will be leaving soon for parts unknown. There's Anne Ward seated at the piano. "Wardie" will be remembered as the clown who played the Alma Mater on a harmonica in the dorm at 1 A. M. As we start upstairs we encounter Willie on her way to KSLU (without her cats) and Eleanor, our hard working gal, and past editor of the Hill News. There's "Car" attempting to sketch "Woodie," an aspiring language teacher, while in the next room is the usual group looking in every nook and corner for a fourth for bridge . . . Viv, Jo, and "Tootie." Ah, here's Gerry—but there she goes to meet her Phi Sig! Well, no one in sight, so "Tootie" sits back for a glance at her "Jersey Observer." As we pass into the hall, we see Elaine with her ever-cheering smile. Further down the hall we find Johnnie attempting to get the paint off her elbows acquired while working on the Mummers' latest stage set. Well, we must be on our way, but first let's bid good-bye to Mrs. Dorothy Carnal, the Kappa Delta housemother, who certainly contributes towards making an enjoyable household.

ALPHA DELTA PI

We are the girls of Alpha Delta Pi. Our pin is the black diamond with the clasped hands and Greek letters Alpha Delta Pi in gold. Blue and white are our colors and the violet is our flower. Our home at St. Lawrence is the white and green house at 18 Elm Street and our capable housemother is Mrs. Helen Baynard. The A. D. Pi's, as we are called, are active girls and we enjoy participating in the various activities on campus. Our president, Mary Ellen Lynch, or "M'Ellen," as she is better known, spends much of her free time working with the Mummers, while our tall, blonde Marj Holtermann is a member of Kalon and the president of W. S. G. A. Josie Durland works with the Thelomathesian Society as its secretary-treasurer, and Lorrie Pilke, besides being a program director at KSLU, is an active member of the Campus Council. Our house manager is "Twig' Larrabee, and besides her many duties at the house, she finds time to be the associate editor of the "Scarlet Saint." Joanie Buchholtz, head of the cheerleaders, is the A. D. Pi song leader as well, and Betty Damon claims the title of being the only woman ski judge in the United States. Not only do we enjoy campus activities, but we also have fun doing things together at the house. We have parties and picnics and "hot-dog" roasts in the yard, and there are many times when we just like to get together and talk.

INTERFRATERNITY COUNCIL

The Interfraternity Council for 1948-1949 has been very active in campus fraternity affairs. Composed of two men from each house, the main function of the Council is to coordinate the activities of the fraternities on campus. The representatives this year were Rennie Curlew, who is also President, and Richard Van Deusen from the Sigma Alpha Epsilon House, Bud Kneaskern and Warren Zittell for Phi Sigma Kappa, Frank Schwartz and Ted McCabe representing the Sigma Pi House, Don O'Brien and Don Beaman from the Beta Theta Pi House, and Fred Laver and Bill O'Rourke for Alpha Tau Omega. Rushing, over which the Council has complete control, was conducted under a new system, and the eligibility requirements for pledging were changed. The purpose of the Interfraternity Council is to establish a working relationship between the fraternities and both the administration and the other social groups on campus, and also to insure fair rushing and maximum satisfaction for the rushees as well as for the various fraternities. In addition to their regulation of rushing, the Council sponsored drives for its Hospital Fund and Scholarship Fund, both of which were very successful. Treasurer Frank Schwartz was largely responsible for this. As long as there are fraternities on the Hill, the Interfraternity Council will be a vital part of the student program to keep the fraternity system functioning smoothly and successfully, and thus make student life at St. Lawrence fuller and more enjoyable for all.

BETA THETA PI

Pictured here is Wooglin's Band, hailing from the big gray house on the northeast corner of the campus. When September twenty-second of 1948 dawned, the members of Beta Zeta were ready once again to take their places in the various activities on campus as well as in the classroom. The Beta House consists of a well-diversified group, being represented in the majority of the activities on campus, as the members strive to attain the goal of a well-rounded education. As always, the Betas have actively participated in leadership among the undergraduate body. True to its tradition as a singing fraternity, the Beta House once again won the fraternity singing contest held last spring on Moving-Up Day Weekend. The Seventy-first Annual Beta Ball took place this year on November the twentieth. Tony Pastor furnished us with some very fine music and the decorations added greatly to the formal atmosphere. All in all the dance can be considered one of the high spots of this year's campus activities. The Beta House, as in years past, has once again proven to be a source of good fellowship for its members and its fellow Laurentians.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

The white brick building that stands on the northern edge of the campus houses the brothers of the Alpha Omicron chapter of Alpha Tau Omega. Chapter interest in all of the phases of college life is exemplified by their participation in honorary fraternities, publications, clubs, and sports. Kixioc claims two Alphas, Jim Maley and Steve Larrabee, who also edits the "Scarlet Saint." The highly prized 1947-48 sports banner hangs in the ballroom of the A. T. O. House. Outside of scholastic activities, perhaps we had better mention such major improvements as the four new convertibles that adorn the Alpha parking lot. Varsity sports this past year claimed thirty-five members from the house. The "loyal sons of blue and gold" again arranged that masterful production known as the Alpha Ball over Moving-Up Day Weekend. Along with this tradition, the Alphas continued their ever-present loquacious propensity in their new territory, the pool room. Since the founding of St. Lawrence's chapter of Alpha Tau Omega, the fraternity has endeavored to produce and sponsor lasting friendships. This past year has yielded many gratifying results, and thus was achieved, partly, the goal aspired to by our founders.

PHI SIGMA KAPPA

Under the kindly gaze of smiling LaVere "Bud" Kneaskern, house president, the intrepid Greek lettermen have strode and stumbled from Phi Sig Hall into a slew of campus activities, sorority houses, and downtown amusement parlors. Rusty-haired Bill Rescorl wields the gavel at Thelomathesian meetings; impish Bill Davis gleans and publishes all the news fit to print as editor of the school paper; Marty Richman, at the helm of the "Laurentian," tempers the school mag with his moderating wisdom and good humor; and untold others are playing important parts on Larry sports squads, at KSLU, in various clubs, and in Looking 'Em Over across the Knoll in general. The sturdy structure which houses the chapter-men, converted from an old grain silo in early 1900, still shelters three in particular as it has since 1942: Bill Rescorl, Bob Griffith, and Fred Troutwine, the Grand Old Men of Phi Sigma Kappa. Six years have passed since this scholarly trio enrolled at St. Lawrence, and like the Grasse River, "they just keep rollin' along." Pins dropped like autumn leaves as various brothers fell in line with the trend, and throats are still raw from ringing serenades.

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON

New York Rho Chapter once again took its place as one of the leading fraternities on the campus of St. Lawrence University this year. With some eighty-five members responding to the call, all house activities were completely successful. In sports, the SAE's placed five men on the varsity football squad, five of the eight men on the undefeated wrestling team, and were represented on every other varsity team. Hank Powers was Managing Editor of the "Hill News" and Bill Hayden was president of the "L" Club, with many brothers serving on the staffs of campus publications, social committees, and KSLU. Several SAE's were also taken into the honorary societies. SAE may also look upon this year as a social success; the annual Barnacle Ball and picnic at Armstrong's camp was one of the spring's social highlights. By its novel theme, the fall houseparty not only increased the SAE record collection, but was the source of many amusing costumes. The finishing touches were put on the two new rooms in the cellar and recreation can be enjoyed there by the members and their guests. This summer the exterior of the house was painted and minor repairs were completed on the interior.

SIGMA PI

Throughout another year forty-two returning wearers of the Greek Cross swelled by new eager subscribers to our mystic ritual have taken their part in forming another page of the venerable history of St. Lawrence. On returning to the campus we found that our dream house had never seen light because of an illness of the building chairman, but with dash we concentrated upon redecorating the downstairs, guided by the impeccable taste of John Massaro, our old "paper hanger." Now with the knowledge that our new house is a definite proposition, our hopes for the future have risen to heights as lofty as the spire of our chapel. This year again found the Sig Pi's entering into every phase of life within the college gates. Representing the cross on the campus were Eddie Garbers and Blackie Borab, driving forces of the hockey team, and "Red" Chapadeau and Jim Roselle improving upon Bill Stern over the airways while football and baseball stars could be found training at 48 Park in the afternoons. Besides being foremost in the art of giving beer parties, we have taken our more serious social obligations very much to heart in the tradition of our fraternity. Truly the bearers of the Greek Cross embraced the book and the hands of their friends with equal success.

ARGONAUTS

The Argonauts, the official independent men's organization for all non-affiliated men, is nearing the end of its third year of existence at the university. One of the objectives of this group is to promote and promulgate, by democratic principles, a better St. Lawrence. The Argonauts, though small in membership, has taken great strides in carrying out this objective. Its members are active in almost every phase of campus life. Many Argonauts carry the burdens of leadership in the Student Union, which has completed its first year as a social outlet for all students. The campus Co-op serves a great need and has provided outstanding service to the campus. The International Relations Club, KSLU, the College Discussion Group, and many other campus organizaisons have Argonaut men in leadership roles. Honors have come to Argonauts members through membership in Kixioc, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, Phi Beta Kappa, and other honorary groups. The Argonauts are always high on the list of scholastic attainment. This organization holds membership in the National Independent Students' Association (NISA). We are deeply appreciative of the able and devoted guidance of Dr. William Houk, Argonauts adviser.

WINTER CARNIVAL

King Newk and Queen Ellie

Once again St. Lawrence University's Winter Carnival featured a weekend of successful athletic and social activities. Aided by an unusual snowstorm in an otherwise uncooperative winter, the campus itself added to the spirit of the festival by becoming a picturesque "winter wonderland."

The first outward indication of the fun-packed three days began around February 1st when the mounds of snow and ice in front of the various fraternity and sorority houses promised statues representing characters in Greek mythology, in accordance with the Carnival theme. The social whirl of activities opened officially on Thursday night, February 3rd, with a ski rally at Laurentian Hall, a torch-light parade led by the regal candidates, and the coronation of the King and Queen in the Canton park. Chosen to reign were Eleanor DeWitt, representing Delta Delta Delta, and Newk Steuart of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Judy Sullivan, Kappa Delta; Nancy Manning, Independent Women; Marilyn Stewart, Pi Beta Phi; Patricia Nalton, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Barbara Rowley, Alpha Delta Pi; LaVere Kneaskern, Phi Sigma Kappa; Bob Finley, Beta Theta Pi; Dick Wellington, Alpha Tau Omega; and Dick Sweet, Sigma Pi, attended the royal couple.

Athletic activities began Friday with the skiing events at the Snow Bowl in which ten colleges participated. Starting with men's and women's downhill in the morning, the meet continued with the cross-country race and women's slalom in the afternoon. The hockey game scheduled for Friday afternoon was cancelled because of excess snow but the basketball game that night with Champlain College added to the Carnival victories. On the social agenda was the Silver Dollar Party, an informal dance in the spirit of a Monte Carlo theme—roulette wheels and all.

Saturday was really the most spectacular day of the weekend. Huge crowds gathered at South Colton to witness the men's slalom and jumping contests on this last day of the ski meet in which St. Lawrence downed a powerful Cornell to hold the state championship. The last sports event of the weekend took place Saturday night when the wrestling team claimed a win over the Rochester Institute of Technology. Highlighting the three-day festival was the Carnival Ball, held in the Sunken Lounge of Men's Residence. Winter decorations and two bands supplying continuous music, the Laurentians and the Varsity Band of Potsdam, added to the immense success of the evening.

The ice statues proved exceptional this year. Phi Sigma Kappa took first place among the men with Atlas and the World while, of the girls, Dean-Eaton Hall won honors with Winged Victory. Honorable mention was given Beta Theta Pi for Herakles and the Hydra, Campus Co-operative for The Chariot Driver, and Delta Delta Delta for Poseidon Enthroned.

Planning the Winter Carnival is a year-around job. This year Howard McKinley headed the committee which was divided into fourteen sub-committees. Included among these were General Secretary, Joan Hanigan; Dance Committee, William Caldwell; Carnival Ball, Bob Henning; Silver Dollar Dance, Jack Brush; Ski Meet, Lou Taylor; Hill Manager, Rene Burdet; and Transportation, Warren Zittell. Directing the publicity was Ed Beam, while Eleanor Nicklus headed the committee for the Winter Carnival Booklet; Scotty McAloon was in charge of the opening day; J. J. Campbell, the ski rally; Betty Damon, the Coronation; and Jim Hannon and Nancy Schilling, honored guests. A. Edward Hill acted as business manager and William Davis directed the co-ordination between the Athletic Department and the town of Canton. There were, of course, many sub-chairmen under these committees who, along with the committee heads, the administration, the weatherman, and the students, helped to make the 1949 Carnival a great success.

The other ice statues that were entered in the judging were: The Centaur by Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Cyclops by Alpha Tau Omega; Diana by Pi Beta Phi; Cupid by Alpha Delta Pi; Neptune by Kappa Delta; and Winged Foot of Mercury by Kappa Kappa Gamma. The coronation statue featured Zeus, the king of the gods.

GRANTLAND RICE

THE COACHING STAFF

The Athletic Department was headed by Ronald T. Burkman this year. Mr. Burkman was appointed Director of Athletics succeeding Roy Clogston who left St. Lawrence to accept a similar post at North Carolina State University. Mr. Burkman entered St. Lawrence in the fall of 1924, and was a standout athlete here for four years. After graduation he played two years of professional baseball before beginning his coaching career on the Hill. "Burk" has coached basketball and baseball here for several seasons with considerable success and continued to lead the Larries in both sports during the 1948-49 season. He was ably assisted in this department by five veterans and two newcomers to the Hill.

Paul Patten succeeded Roy Clogston as Head Football Coach. He is a graduate of Notre Dame where he was a member of the varsity football team. After graduating from the South Bend school he coached high school sports for two years and since that time had been Backfield Coach at St. Lawrence. He also mentored the hockey team to a very successful season. Coach Patten was assisted in coaching the football team by Backfield Coach Oscar Cochi and two new line coaches. They are Olav Kollevoll, a graduate of Colgate University, and Tully Wells, who was at Mohawk last year. Charles Patricia coached the Freshman team.

Tully Wells took over the reigns of the wrestling team. He served in a similar capacity at Mohawk the year before. He also guided the Larrie tennis team this spring.

The ski team was under the tutelage of Otto Schniebs who has rightfully been named "The Father of U. S. Skiing." Mr. Schniebs is not only a well known authority on skiing in this country but is also rated very highly throughout Europe. Mr. Schniebs is the man who made Dartmouth College famous for its ski teams and he also founded the American Ski School at Lake Placid in 1936. He is also credited with many other accomplishments in this winter sport. Otto Schniebs was actually not a newcomer to St. Lawrence this year. He piloted the Saints to successful seasons in 1940-41 and 1941-42 and is generally accredited with rejuvenating the sport here.

The golf team this spring was under the tutelage of Robert Haggery. Mr. Haggerty is the professional at the Canton Golf Club. Oscar Cochi also coached the freshmen in basketball and baseball. "Doc" Littlejohn again served as trainer for the Athletic Department.

THE "L" CLUB

OFFICERS

William Hayden	President
William O'Rourke . . .	Vice-President
Olaus Audet . . .	Secretary-Treasurer

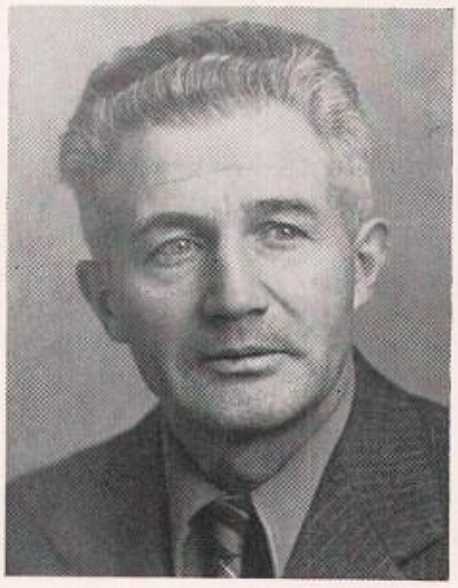
The "L" Club is open to all undergraduate men who have participated in either a major or minor sport and have earned a varsity "L." The purpose of the "L" Club is to unite its members with the goal of promoting sports and sportsmanship and furthering athletic ideas at St. Lawrence. One of the "L" Club's most essential duties is to plan and carry out the orientation of the incoming freshmen with regard to familiarizing them with general rules of campus behavior and also to foster in the "frosh" that intangible thing called spirit. The Club feels that this is a most important and fundamental job, for, with this feeling of friendship and spirit, comes the unification of the freshman class. Material signs of this unity were evidenced at every varsity football game during the fall, when the freshmen sat as a bloc and under the direction of the "L" Club members, flashed cards of scarlet and white, creating letters and formations. Nor was there more cheering and support to athletics than that offered by the plebes. By their participation in sports, the members of the Club create certain rivalries, as with the students of Clarkson, but by the same token, it is the "L" Club as a functioning body which maintains constant surveillance over the actions of each school's student body. There have been cases of over-enthusiasm in the past which have resulted in accidents. The club has cut these occurrences almost to extinction and the success of this means of control has been realized. Social functions also play an important part in the activities of the organization. During Clarkson Weekend the "L" Club sponsors a dance on the Saturday of the football game. This culminates one of St. Lawrence's major weekends, a crowning climax of the fall season. Several banquets held in behalf of its members participating in currently Larry athletics, were conducted with success and with that same bond of unification that is characteristic of all "L" Club functions.

THE SKIING STORY



OTTO E. SCHNIEBS
Coach

The advent of snow in the North Country was long awaited by the St. Lawrence ski team. In the interim Otto E. Schniebs took over the position of coach for the Larries. John "Gus" Hall, although critically injured in an accident last year, was unanimously elected captain of the team. With the exception of Rainbow Wright's absence, the team was virtually the same as the previous year. Ray McIntyre, four event man from Lake Placid, led the team at Lake Placid, St. Lawrence Snow Bowl, Dartmouth, and McGill. Ray took first, second, and fifth in the jump at the Snow Bowl, Lake Placid, and Dartmouth, respectively, and also ranked high in the downhill and slalom. At the St. Lawrence Winter Carnival Ray won the coveted Ski-meister Trophy. Harold "Corky" Anson of Lake Placid and Bill Frenette of Tupper Lake helped the team average with their cross country running and jumping and both steadily improved with the season, as did Art Lewis of Jamestown. The cross country specialist was Ray Mulvihill of Ottawa who also showed well in downhill and slalom. Jim Fife of Middlebury, Vermont, and Hugh Pierce of Newport, Vermont, were the original hard luck boys of the team as both received injuries to keep them out of competition for several of the meets. Both are outstanding short race performers. Hugh broke his ankle in running the slalom at South Colton in near record time. Chuck Mowry of Rome and Paul Soros, Hungarian exchange student, rounded out the team with their performances in the downhill and slalom.

The Larry team started out the season by sending its jumpers to Lake Placid for the intercollegiate jump, the sole event held during the annual Sno-Bird meet. Rain and lack of snow virtually ruined the meet but St. Lawrence came out capturing five out of ten places in this event. Although no official record was taken, unofficial scoring shows that St. Lawrence came out with top honors among the other colleges represented, even beating the powerful Dartmouth.

Soros, Mulvihill, McIntyre, Anson, Lewis. Pierce, Frenette, Merchant, Hall, Coach Schniebs.

The New York State Championship, held during our Winter Carnival, found St. Lawrence skiers winning for the fifty consecutive year. At the end of the first day the Larries held a slim margin in points over Cornell and R. P. I. but on the second day St. Lawrence spread-eagled ahead with a meet total of 372.3 points in comparison to Cornell's 350.4. St. Lawrence suffered its first setback at the Dartmouth Winter Carnival, placing behind such top teams as Dartmouth, Middlebury, McGill, New Hampshire, and Vermont. The following week the team traveled to Montreal and McGill where they met the same opposition. The team closely paralleled its previous performance by again placing sixth. Out-of-season weather again played its part as it did on the following week, causing the postponement of the Middlebury Winter Carnival for lack of snow. As at the Sno-Bird meet, the only skiing event at Middlebury was the jump. This time it was an individual jump open to all, in which McIntyre astounded ski circles by coming out with the highest number of points of any other contestant entered.

To accomplish the aim of good ski instruction to everyone rather than to a chosen few athletes, the university established a ski council which, together with the ski coaching staff operated under the university athletic director. The ski council includes two faculty advisors, one of whom is the director of the Outing Club, a representative of the women's athletic department, the president, the secretary and two student members of the Outing Club, and the guiding spirit and ski coach, Otto E. Schniebs. The ski council has direct supervision over four undergraduate committees set up for various purposes connected with the program. These include a committee on racing, publicity, entertainment, and the Winter Carnival. The ski coaching staff, working at all times with the ski council and with a membership duplicating in part that of the council, comprises the head ski coach and the undergraduate instructors. An important side of the coaching staff is the resident director of the university's fifty-thousand-dollar Snow Bowl development at South Colton, twenty miles from the campus. The recreational program fell under the direction of the coaching staff with a head instructor and student instructors in direct charge of the ski school. Also under the coaching staff was the Snow Bowl committee, the ski shop, run this year by Jim Lally, and a unit of the Red Cross Ski Patrol, under the direction of James "Doc" Littlejohn. Otto E. Schniebs, who came back to St. Lawrence after an absence of six years, had supervision of the entire program. Rainbow Wright, captain of the varsity ski team last year and national champion of the classic combined (cross country and jumping) event, served as director of the Outing Club, which worked closely with the ski council, its membership largely overlapping.

FOOTBALL

The St. Lawrence University football team, under the direction of the new head coach, Paul Patten, completed its 1948 football season with a .500 record of three wins, three losses and two ties. With the introduction of the winged-T formation by Patten, the team showed a deceptive defense and a strong line play. Had it not been for frequent fumbles and lack of experience, the team's record might have been even more noteworthy. The main strength of the Larries this year was their aggressive defensive play which held the opposition to an average of 128.7 yards per game to rank them among the nation's leading defensive elevens. The big line led by Maley, Shakshober, Last, and Barron was outstanding and represented a vast improvement over last year's team.

The Patten eleven got off to a disappointing start dropping its first three games to Union, Hobart, and Vermont. In each of these contests the Larries held the edge in the statistics but fumbles and missed opportunities cost them victories. The next contest, which was against our big rival, Clarkson, resulted in a disappointing 0-0 tie as the Larries mauled and pushed the Engineers all over the gridiron but failed to cross the goal line. Although the Scarlet outgained the Green and Gold 180 yards to .4, their offensive marches were stalled continually by fumbles, two of which occurred on the two-yard line. The offense evidenced in the Clarkson game finally got rolling as the Scarlet and Brown travelled to Plattsburg and dumped the Champlain Blue Jays 14-6. Following the Champlain victory, St. Lawrence, in a game featured by a great line play and a 37-yard O'Loughlin to MacKay touchdown pass, upset a favored Alfred eleven 6-0 at Canton. The defensive play in this game was outstanding and it bottled up the Saxon offense all afternoon.

The Larries' next effort was a 14-0 drubbing of Norwich, in a game featured by John Yannes's 90-yard kick off return for a touchdown. Played in a driving rain, the contest produced one of the team's best offensive games, with Conners, Yannes, and Hayden picking up most of the yardage. In the season's finale, the team journeyed to Kingston for the alumni game against a strong Gettysburg eleven which resulted in a hard-earned 7-7 tie. The Larries missed victory in the closing seconds of play when Bill Barron's field goal attempt struck the goal post.

The Scarlet and Brown, lacking any individual stars, had a well-balanced offense which gained 1,638 yards as compared to 1,030 for their opponents. The offensive burden was carried by the passing of Quarterback Jack O'Loughlin who amassed 317 yards and a host of ball carriers including Conners, MacKay, Hayden, and Guardino, all of whom accounted for more than 200 yards rushing. The punting assignment was handled by Yannes and Metraw with the former booting 26 times for an average of 37.4 yards. Captain Jim Maley and Don MacKay topped the scoring honors with two touchdowns apiece as the Larries outscored their opponents 62-58.

BASKETBALL

Coach Ron Burkman brought to the court an experienced set of fast-breaking juniors. With a previous season's play behind it, the Scarlet and Brown got under way in mid-December by trouncing McGill and Hartwick in Brewer Field House. This illustrious start promised better results than the past two seasons of 11 and 6 records, but the Larries' first trip downstate brought losses to Union and Fordham. Although John Moro of North Tarrytown looked good against the New Yorkers, the Rams handed the Larries a 68-55 loss after a nip-and-tuck first half. Led by the Lawrences, Elmslie, Bill O'Rourke, and Captain John Moro, the courtmen won 7 out of the next 11 contests, conquering Queens, Vermont, Middlebury, Alfred, Buffalo, Champlain, and Hobart, the latter team allowing the Larries to score a season's high of 91 points. The losses were to Clarkson, Colgate, Ithaca, and R. P. I. Still smarting from its defeat by Clarkson earlier in the season, the Larries were seeking revenge on the Potsdam club in Canton at their next encounter when they took the Green and Gold for a 75-68 win. The Saints then defeated Sampson, 83-61 in a home game.

The Larry basketball team averaged 65 points per game in winning twelve out of 18 contests during the 1948-49 season. The Saints' total, 1,155 points, was the highest ever registered by a St. Lawrence team. Bill O'Rourke was the individual leader once more, his time with 222 points in 18 games. John Moro was close behind with 202 points, and Roger Lawrence, John Lawrence, and Slim Elmslie all had 144 or more. The Larries only loss at Brewer Field House was to Ithaca, 68-51, and outstanding home victories were won at the expense of Hartwick, Vermont, and Clarkson. The team's 91 points against Hobart was the season record, as was O'Rourke's 27 point effort in the first Champlain game. The Larries failed to score at least 50 points only twice, in the 47-53 loss to Union and the 49-55 loss to Clarkson at Potsdam. Although the five starters were the principal scorers, full credit should be given to the reserves, led by Lou Cioffi, Bob Van Slyke, Ed Starke, Al Van Alstyne, and George Kuell. The whole team is slated to return next year, a circumstance which should give much comfrot to Coach Ronald T. Burkman and none at all to St. Lawrence's opponents.

BASEBALL

The St. Lawrence University baseball team compiled a record of six wins and five losses for the 1948 campaign, which was highlighted by three stirring one-run wins over the Clarkson Tech nine. Coach Burkman's team got off on the right foot with a 5-4 win over St. Michaels in a game that was featured by Hank Dul's tight pitching and Jack Williams' timely hitting. Despite good pitching from Dul and Bill McKever the team was unable to get a consistent hitting attack functioning, and, as a result, dropped its next four games to Syracuse, Hobart, Norwich, and Middlebury. As the season progressed, Burkman's nine lifted their offensive stregnth to a higher level, which spelled evil for opposing moundsmen, In the most thrilling game of the year, the Larries, led by Dul, squeaked out a tight 3-2 decision over a determined Cortland State nine in 14 innings. Dul, besides pitching brilliant six-hit ball, drove in the winning run and collected three hits for the day.

In the next game the Saints fashioned a twelve-hit attack but lost a heartbreaker to Ithaca College, 4-2. After this setback, however, the team went on to sweep the remaining four games on their schedule, thereby rescuing the season. The Rochester Yellowjackets invaded the North Country and were bested, 3-1, due to the effective pitching of Dul and McKever and some vital stickwork by Jack Moten. Following this victory the rejuvenated Larries routed the Clarkson Engineers in a three-game series which saw St. Lawrence take all three contests from their arch-rivals. The first game, played at Potsdam, was a pitching duel with Dul and St. Lawrence coming out on top by a 2 to 1 score. Big George Van Derzee accounted for all the Larry runs with a triple and three singles in four times at bat. The second game again saw the Scarlet and Brown edge the Green and Gold, this time by the score of 7 to 6. In the season's finale, the Canton team added insult to injury when they again clipped Tech by a 3 to 2 score, in a game marked by Dul's fine hurling and some clutch-hitting by Moten and Jack Weeden. The pitching staff was the bright spot on the Larry nine with Hank Dul spearheading the way with a 5 and 2 record and receiving valuable assistance from Bill McKever. Vic Sacco, second baseman, led the hitters with a .310 average followed closely by George Van Derzee's .306 mark.

HOCKEY

Gaining collegiate hockey prestige with every push of the puck, the Scarlet Saints sextet once again made its presence known throughout eastern intercollegiate circles as well as in the metropolitan area. Opening their campaign with a 9-3 loss to the Canadian Cornwall Calumets, the Saints then proceeded to do a complete about face with a successful invasion of New York City where they up-ended the New York Athletic Club, 6-3. Continuing on their winning way, the Saints made a virtual shambles of the cage as they demolished Brockville 10-4 and dropped Hamilton 5-2. Patten's pucksters then rocked the north country by toppling Colgate from the unbeaten ranks with a decisive 6-4 triumph. Undoubtedly one of the bright spots of the season, the victory catapulted the Saints to the status of a recognized hockey power in the east. Losses to Clarkson and Williams temporarily halted the scarlet-shirted skaters' victory caravan but an overtime 6-5 thriller at the expense of Colgate and a 6-3 thumping of Clarkson put the Larries back on the right side of the ledger. At Clarkson the Saints' front lines exerted pressure on the Clarkson defense until it snapped wide open and then the Scarlet pucksters rammed through three counters in the remarkable time of one and a half minutes to clinch the contest. Middlebury proved to be an easy mark as the Saints sent ten tallies into the twine to chalk up a 10-5 victory and then proceeded to down Clinton 6-1. The Lake Placid Roamers marred the season's final with an 8-7 edging of the Saints but Patten's men had salvaged a record of 8 wins and 4 losses.

Individual achievements throughout the campaign were numerous and brilliant. Mike Nardello's solo dash to score the winning goal in an overtime period against Colgate was one of the thrilling moments of the year while hot tricks by Garbers and Gerard provided cheering fuel for Larry rooters. Andes and Borab turned in sparkling front line play and Doug Westerburg, who had a private lease on the penalty box, teamed up with Ed Gunthorpe to perform yeoman work on defense. The first line of Nardello, Borab, and Weeden backed by the second line of Garbers, Gerard, and Andes packed a potent scoring punch while pad-wearer Gene DelVecchio made the scoring of enemy goals a tedious business. Coach Paul Patten and assistant coach Ollie Kollevol can look back upon a successful season and forward to greater hockey heights. With a $350,000 hockey palace planned and the return of the entire team for another season of competition, the outlook is rosy.

WRESTLING

The line-up for the initial wrestling match of the 1948-1949 season was bolstered by the return of six stalwart veterans of the undefeated octet of the previous campaign. Among the returning lettermen were Captain Rennie Curlew and Bill Hayden at 128 and 155 pounds respectively. Each entered the fresh season with an unblemished record from last year's competition. Both, however, were destined to be subdued during the ensuing encounters. Also among the varsity holdovers were Duane Huntley at 121 pounds, who left at the end of the term; the 136-pounder, Paul Hayden; Rennie Vail, clashing at 145; and Bill Sywetz, who took to the mats in the unlimited class. This year the grunt-and-groaners were under the tutelage of Gardner E. "Tully" Wells who replaced Roy B. Clogston. The new Larry mat mentor coached at Mohawk College before coming to the Hill.

The locals won the first match from Champlain College 24-10, but were not so fortunate in the next two outings. A strong Sampson squad gained a 16-16 tie and the following week the visiting Cortland Teachers handed the Scarlet and Brown its first setback in ten postwar meets with a 20-10 thumping. There was one more loss along the eight-game route when the St. Lawrence matmen engaged two enemies on consecutive evenings and fell victim to the powerful Ithaca club, 27-3 on the second leg of the two-meet journey. When a squad suffers only two setbacks, however, it can hardly be considered unsuccessful. In the next match, the team beat Queens to a 24-5 score and then ended the season with a second match with Champlain which ended in a 15-15 tie. Despite the loss of Huntley, Joe Crotty, and the Hayden brothers, greater conquests are expected of the remaining team members along with several prominent jayvee wrestlers who will probably be called to fill the gap next year.

An inexperienced St. Lawrence golf team, playing under adverse conditions for almost the entire season, compiled a record of four wins and seven losses for the 1948 campaign. The squad was made up entirely of newcomers with the exception of Captain Pete Sala, who was the only veteran holdover from the 1947 squad. The six-man squad, chosen from over 40 candidates by coaches Roy Clogston and Paul Patten, included Pete Sala, Bob Stevenson, Paul Godridge, George Sturtz, John Gordon, and Rufe Cutting. Opening the season in a triple meet at Geneva with Hobart and Niagara, the Saints lost to Hobart 6½-2½, but defeated Niagara, 6-3. The following day the team played a strong Syracuse University squad on the Syracuse course in a late-season snow storm and were bested, 9-0. On May 15 the Larries played Syracuse at Canton and again were defeated. The following week saw the Scarlet rack up two successive victories at home by beating Champlain College 6½-2½ and downing Union 5½-3½. The golfers next journeyed to Potsdam and lost a close match to their arch-rivals, Clarkson College. Continuing on the road, the Saints dropped two successive matches to Middlebury and Colgate. Returning to the home course the linksmen finished their season successfully by avenging their previous loss to Clarkson by a 6-3 score. With five experienced lettermen returning to the links this year, the golfers should have a much more successful season.

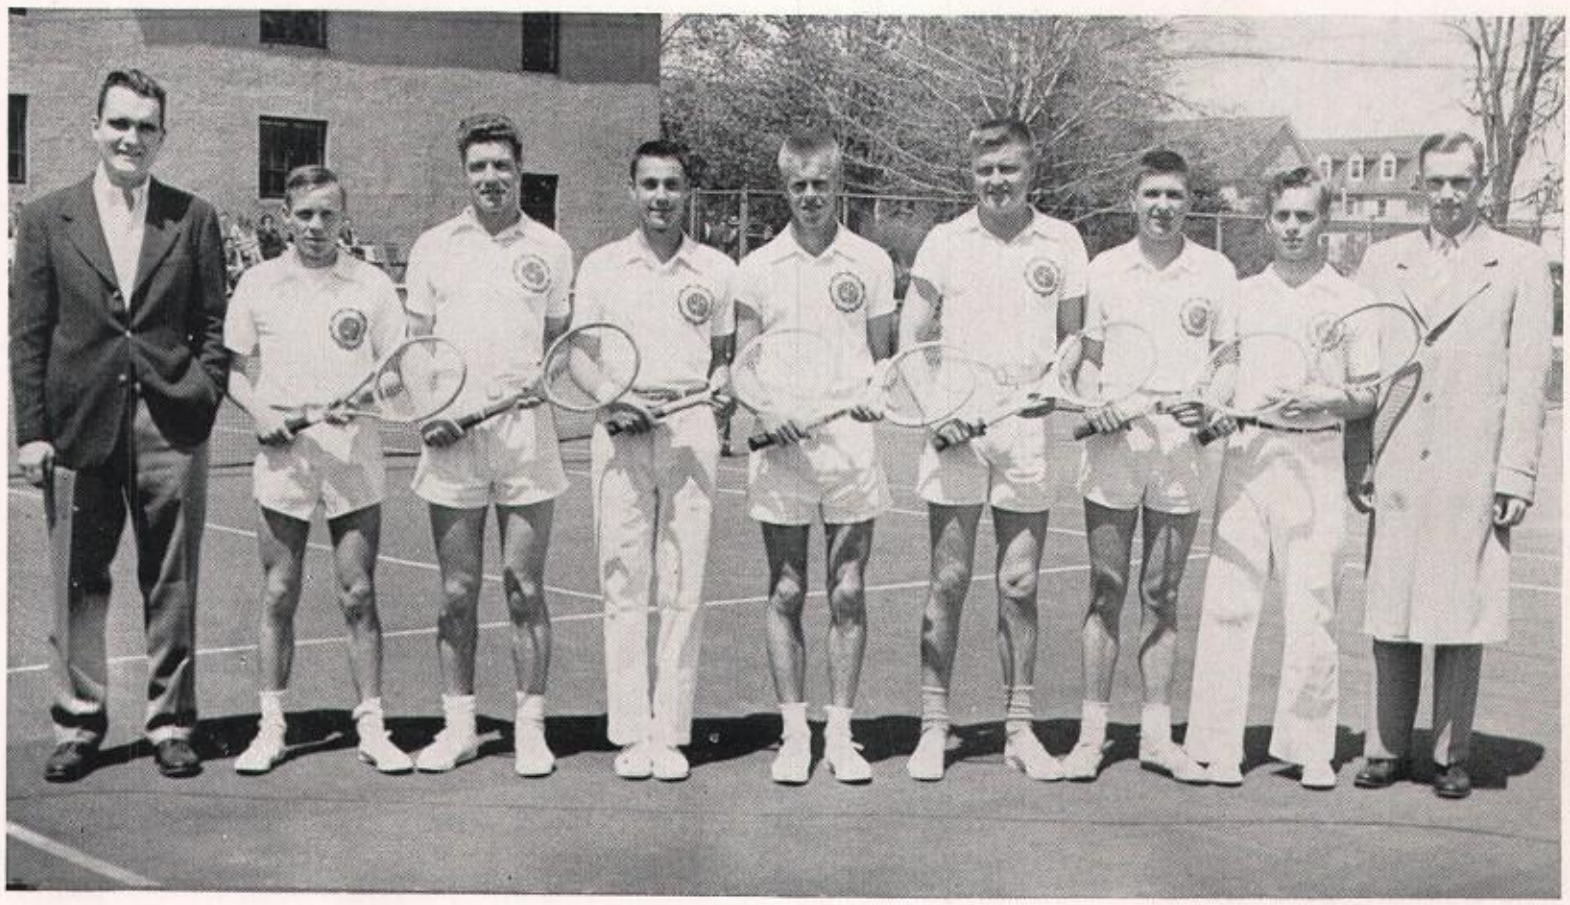
The Scarlet and Brown netmen of St. Lawrence University completed a highly successful 1948 court campaign. Under the able guidance of Don Frick, the Larries chalked up four victories and one tie in six starts. In the opening match the sneaker-togged Cantonites defeated the Rideau Tennis Club of Ottawa in an exhibition contest. The S. L. U. team got off to a fast start, downing the strong Canadian Club 6-3. By defeating Clarkson 5-4 in a close contest on the Weeks Field courts, St. Lawrence won its second victory. Capturing four of the six single matches, the Larries clinched the triumph when Captain Al Ingalls and Jack Bareham took the Number three doubles contest. In the following game the gum-shoed St. Lawrence team tied Middlebury, 4-4. The Scarlet and Brown dropped four single matches but managed to capture three doubles. Rain cancelled the third and decisive match. Warren Holzkamp and John Lawrence both proved adept during the fray, each figuring in all of the St. Lawrence points. This pair won their singles matches and then turned to aid their team-mates in copping the doubles matches to even the score. Lawrence and Holzkamp, number two and three men for St. Lawrence, turned in impressive season records for the singles division. Each obtained five victories in six matches, while Al Ingalls and Don Elitharp contributed additional points to the singles scores. In the last match of the season a high-powered Colgate squad outclassed the Larries, 7-2. This was the only defeat to mar an otherwise perfect season.

Manager McKinley, Bareham, Ingalls, Lawrence, Elitharp, Holzkmap, Sperling, Morgan, Coach Frick.



CHEERLEADING

This year's squad of cheerleaders was composed of an equal number of men and women, for the second time in St. Lawrence cheerleading history.

The twelve red and white uniforms were a handsome sight on the football field this fall, while during the basketball season, although their number was smaller, their voices, grins, and threats were as strong as ever. Sportsmanship, ever-present in Larry teams of any sort, was evident when our squad enthusiastically exchanged cheers with its opponents.

One of the outstanding accomplishments of this year's group was the brilliant red and white card flashing, executed by the members of the freshman class, and directed by head cheerleaders Pete McDonough and Joan Buchholtz. They also organized a group of ten eager freshmen who "gave their all" to lead the yells at the frosh basketball games. This gave the freshmen experience and practice for competition in the spring for next year's varsity squad.

Perhaps the most exciting phase of the season was the SLU-Gettysburg football game. In true Larry fashion, the cheerleaders would not be left behind on the 300-mile jaunt to Kingston. They cheered the gridders down the field for every yard of play, and didn't waste an ounce of the St. Lawrence spirit that was raging in the stands.

The cheerleaders felt that the increased cooperation and the overwhelming expression of spirit on the part of the student body at all athletic functions and pep rallies were the main reasons for the great improvements seen among the cheerleaders.

So let's give a cheer for the squad which keeps smiling at us throughout the year at almost every athletic encounter. They deserve our encouragement and praise for the great job they do.

W. A. A.

The Women's Athletic Association, in cooperation with the Women's Board of Athletic Control, is the organizing and driving force behind the program of women's sports at St. Lawrence. The jurisdiction of W. A. A. extends over team and individual sports in all fields.

This year's schedule of events was particularly full and successful. Early in the fall the annual W. A. A. rally for all freshmen and upperclass women was arranged in the form of a "hound and hare" hunt which led from campus to Hulett Lodge and ended with a hotdog roast at the Sandbanks. A few weeks later, a varsity hockey team travelled to Rochester and Middlebury to participate in a meet organized by W. A. A. In December a basketball clinic opened under the direction of Miss Haver to give the girls instruction in game procedure and actual practice in playing. During the year speakers were secured and tournaments—class, sorority, and individual—were arranged in all sports. In May the season ended with the spring rally at the club house on the golf course.

WOMEN'S SPORTS

This year, the Women's Athletic Department, under the direction of two new coaches, Miss Jane Fuller and Miss Jayne Morrison,has been more active than ever before. It has been their plan to provide a sports program broad enough to fit the needs and desires of all the women students. With this objective in mind, progress has been made toward a well-balanced athletic program by providing a variety of activities to each girl. Early in the fall practice for class and varsity hockey teams was started. After five weeks of practice, two varsity teams were chosen, one to be sent to Rochester, the other to Middlebury.

On Oct. 31, Lyn Barfoot, Nancy Conklin, Marylee Hahn, Marge Hoffman, Gloria Johnson, Joey Feindel, Mary Plumer, Sue Pulsifer, Peddy Frolich, Ginny Stanton and Joan Wheeler went to Rochester. There they played in competition against teams from Cortland, Skidmore, and Russell Sage. After losing to Cortland and Skidmore, 1-0 and 2-1, respectively, they defeated Russell Sage by a score of 1-0. During these games, Miss Klabery of Baldwin, L. I., president of U. S. Field Hockey Association, gave the team members instruction on the finer points of the game.

The Middlebury game was played on Nov. 6th and the following girls were the members of the team: Marie Calderone, Pat Clark, Barbara Ray, Bev Runyon, Theresa Howard, Jo Manning, Pat Nolton, Lillian Meinholtz, Louise Sterling, Bev Van Wert, Margot Peck and Barbara Robertson. There the girls played against Skidmore and, although they presented a great deal of competition, they lost 3-2.

In intramural class games, the freshmen and sophomores tied for first place and the playoff resulted in a 1-0 win for the sophomores. The hockey season was rounded off with a spaghetti dinner at the Tick-Tock for every girl who had participated in a sport.

Basketball was the next sport to be introduced this year. This, like hockey, was planned to include all women on campus. On December 3rd a basketball sportsday and clinic was held. Miss Ellen Hawer, National Basketball Judge, conducted the day-long clinic which included a demonstration of zone defense, officiating techniques, and an explanation of new basketball rules. Guests at this playday included: northern zone physical education teachers, Potsdam State Teachers and the State Agricultural and Technical Institute. Also included in this year's basketball program are inter-class and inter-house games. The Freshmen were the winners of the inter-class games.

On February 19th the girls' varsity teams went to Plattsburg where they lost 26-13. The members of this team were Andy Gessner, Alice Wilson, Theresa Howard, Mary Scott, Barbara Schaefer, Jo Manning, Joan Wheeler, Ruth Chevalier, Lyn Barfoot and Ann Koch. Plans are now being made for an extensive spring program. Volleyball, badminton, archery, softball, tumbling, golf, and riding are among the sports to be included.

S. L. U. CLUB

The women's honorary athletic association on campus is S. L. U. Club, an organization whose objective is to further interest and participation in athletics. In order to become eligible for membership in this group, girls must have participated in at least five sports and have accumulated twelve points each year under the athletic point system. The officers are appointed in accordance with the number of points earned in previous years.

Each fall the annual initiation ceremony takes place with a snake chain of colorfully dressed initiates armed with toothbrushes with which to scrub the town sidewalks. One of the pledges which each incoming member makes is to always conduct herself on and off the athletic field in a sportsman-like manner. S. L. U. Club has taken over the duties of the Varsity Council in regard to freshman women's rules, issuing punishments in the case of infringement of regulations. The annual "girl invite" dance is the main event of S. L. U. Club's social calendar.

WHETHER a small private school with a few score students or a large college or national service academy with several thousand, our organization is proud to take part in planning and producing the yearbook. This annual is another example of our efforts to co-ordinate all factors into a unified master plan fitted to the needs and budget of the institution.

THE DU BOIS PRESS

IN APPRECIATION

A school yearbook is usually produced with the assistance of many who are not directly connected with the editorial staff. The staff of the 1949 Gridiron is especially indebted to Twig Larrabee for her help on the literary side of the publication; to Mrs. Janet Labdon for her advice on cover and layout designs; to Mr. Lee Hunt for his artistic photographs of the campus buildings; to Dr. Angus MacLean for his fine tribute to Dean Atwood; and to our faculty advisor, Bob Williams. We would also like to thank all of those students, faculty members, and friends who contributed articles, photographs, or advice or gave us their welcome assistance in any other way.
